

Three Men Killed
In Plunges From
Buildings in City

Three men were killed today when they fell from buildings. James Peterson, 28, of 114 West 18th St., fell from the roof of a shack in the rear of his home. Ben Merling, 53, of 248 East 125th St., plunged three stories from his apartment when he went to a window for fresh air. Jeremiah Doneran, 64, of 1492 Lexington Ave., lost his balance and fell from a fire escape adjoining his apartment four floors above a read courtyard.

Scientist Martyr
To X-Ray Work

LONDON, Aug. 16 (By U. P.).—John Francis Hall-Edwards, a pioneer investigator in England of the X-ray, has died a martyr to science. He was 68. His death yesterday was due to the effects of experiments in the science he made a lifetime study of and which cost him the loss of his hands and gave him burns from which he suffered for years.

N. Y. BANKERS TO FINANCE $30,000,000 PERU LOAN

LIMA, PERU, Aug. 16 (By U. P.).—Approved by Congress, the legislation for Peru's new $30,000,000 loan has gone to the President. The first bond issue will amount to $16,000,000. It is understood that the street already has been aligned with the New York bankers who have handled Peruvian financing in the past.

WANTS MORE MONEY

The Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Smith, acting general secretary of the Evangelistic Committee of New York City, Inc., has sent out a circular letter asking for immediate financial aid.

Will You Pay
Ten Cents
To Become a
Good Driver?

We have a limited supply of Alexander Johnston's booklet entitled, "What Makes a Good Driver." Mr. Johnston is the editor of the Automotive Daily News, America's only daily newspaper for the motor car industry. Mr. Johnston is an authority on every subject he covers, and this booklet should be in the hands of every motor car owner who wants to enjoy driving, prevent accidents, and be free from the inconveniences and expense of being handed a ticket occasionally.

You may remit the ten cents in stamps, which covers only the cost of the booklet and the mailing of it to you. Fill out the coupon below and send it to us at once.

Compare
Carefully

THE only danger about making comparisons is that it is so much easier for the mind to carry the recollection of a lower price than the evidence of a better quality!

This store seldom loses out when both price and quality are figured in!

In comparing prices please keep quality in mind.
